WHEREAS, One of the hallmarks of a great nation is its commitment to open wide the doors of opportunity for every citizen to enjoy the dignity of a productive and rewarding life; and,

WHEREAS, For the past ten years, the Job Corps has offered to disadvantaged young Americans in this State and other areas a second chance to prepare themselves for useful lives; and,

WHEREAS, Across America, more than a half-million young people between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one from low-income families have been groomed for the world of work through Job Corps; and,

WHEREAS, Today over 20,000 young men and women are benefitting from this national program that offers counseling, education, skill training, health care and other vital services; and,

WHEREAS, Job Corps' effectiveness is underscored by the countless success stories that can be found in this State and in communities throughout the nation, and its usefulness is evident from a placement rate of ninety per cent in recent years for the young people who have completed Job Corps training; and,

WHEREFORE, It is most fitting, then, that in recognition of the Tenth Anniversary of the Job Corps, we pay tribute to this vital program and the young people from our State it has served so well:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of February, 1975, as in South Dakota, and call upon all citizens and employers in this State to join in a special recognition of the value of this program and the young men and women it serves.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Five
